32/1718 ON GOING ISSUES

War memorial. A builder may be the best to approach to use lime mortar to seal against water ingress.

Grass cutting in the village. Position for next year as SLA with North Lincolnshire Council finishes 31 March 2018. The clerk will ascertain insurance position re cover for a contractor employed by this council. It was felt that North Lincolnshire council had reduced the number of cuts this year without this council being told.

Poppy Wreath. Resolved to purchase a wreath for remembrance in November. A member of the parish council will attend with the school children at their service and on the Sunday 12 November at the war memorial.

Christmas Event. Resolved to proceed as last year with the school children to be invited. The clerk will purchase the refreshments. The chair will arrange for the lights on the Christmas tree. Three possible dates to be given to the vicar for the date to be fixed, 13, 14 or 18th December.

ECWA update. None.

Drainage at the village green. Ward councillor Briggs will follow up.

Broadband update. Councillor J Briggs has set up a meeting to assist with Broadband for the village. Residents from the village to attend, S Taylor as parish council representative.
